MR. A. MOHAN ALANKAMONY, B.COM (HONS.), LL.B., F.C.A.
EARLY LIFE AND EDUCATION

Mr. A. Mohan Alankamony was born on March 28, 1960, in Trivandrum, Kerala, and hails from Kanyakumari District, Tamil Nadu. He comes from a distinguished lineage, with both his maternal and paternal grandfathers being astute businessmen and respected landlords, which instilled in him a strong work ethic and leadership qualities from an early age.

His mother was a homeopathic doctor who was instrumental in starting the Mahila Samaj in Lakshadweep, which played a significant role in improving women's welfare in the region.

His father, a Civil Engineer in the Central Public Works Department (CPWD) of the Government of India, had a transferable job across the country. As a result, Mr. Mohan Alankamony studied in various parts of India, beginning in Kavaratti Island, Lakshadweep, and completing his secondary education under the Poona Board, Mumbai. This exposure to diverse cultures and perspectives instilled in him a broad outlook, shaping his ability to analyze situations with a comprehensive and inclusive approach. Additionally, his education across multiple regions made him proficient in multiple languages, enhancing his ability to communicate effectively in various professional and social settings.

Mr. Mohan, enrolled at the prestigious R.A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics, Matunga, Mumbai, where he earned a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) degree in Commerce and Economics. He was recognized as one of the ten Best Outgoing Students for his academic and extracurricular achievements.

During his college years, he actively participated in the National Cadet Corps (NCC) – Army Wing, attending the Annual Training Camp and undertaking a Cycling Expedition from Mumbai to Chennai. He also earned the "B" Certificate from the Senior Division of the NCC (Army Wing).

Mr. Mohan Alankamony subsequently pursued and successfully completed the Chartered Accountancy Course (Post Graduation) from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI), New Delhi. For a brief period, he also served as a part-time examiner at ICAI.

Additionally, he obtained a Bachelor of Law (LL.B.) degree from Delhi University, where he was elected as a Member of the Central Council and served as the Vice President of the Law College Students' Union.

Professional Career

Mr. Mohan Alankamony began his professional journey as a Chartered Accountant, practicing from April 10, 1989, to April 20, 2008, as the Founder Partner & Partner-in-Charge of the Chennai Branch of M/s. TASKY Associates, Chartered Accountants.

In April 2008, he was appointed as Hon'ble Accountant Member of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (Department of Legal Affairs, Government of India), where he served with distinction until March 27, 2022. During his tenure, he was posted in:

- Bangalore, with jurisdiction over Karnataka
- Ahmedabad, with jurisdiction over Gujarat, Daman & Diu
- Chennai, with jurisdiction over Tamil Nadu and Puducherry
- Hyderabad, with jurisdiction over Andhra Pradesh and Telangana

During his tenure, he rendered several notable judgments relating to income tax laws, contributing significantly to the field of taxation.

Following his superannuation at the age of 62, he enrolled as an Advocate with the Bar Council of Tamil Nadu & Puducherry and practiced at the Madras High Court for two and a half years before assuming his current role at the Tamil Nadu Lokayukta.
